DISCOVER ORANGE COUNTY'S FAVORITE DOWNTOWN TODAY!

A PLAZA PARK
 Plaza Park was designed in 1886 and maintains its original layout. The elliptical park with a center fountain surrounded by mature trees is the cultural and social heart of Orange.

B MASONIC LODGE—102 N. Glassell St.
 This building was originally known as Campbell's Hall or Opera House, before it was purchased by the Orange Grove Masonic Lodge 293 in 1923.

C 101 E. CHAPMAN AVE.
 Since 1886, this site has held a bank. The original brick building was constructed for the Bank of Orange. In 1927, the building was demolished and replaced with the Classical Revival building for the First National Bank.

D 101 S. GLASSELL ST.
 This building started out as the Ehlen & Grote general store. In 1908, it became the Dittmer Mission Pharmacy with a soda fountain and in the 1930s, the Art Deco exterior was added.

E ORANGE DAILY NEWS—44 Plaza Square
 The Orange Daily News was established in 1909 and operated as a daily newspaper until 1967. Like many buildings in the Plaza, the Orange Daily News has experienced multiple façade renovations over time.

F 100 W. CHAPMAN AVE.
 The oldest part of 100 W. Chapman Avenue was built in 1888. It originally consisted of a single story building, one storefront wide. In 1912, the building was expanded to two stories.

H ORANGE PLAZA POST OFFICE
 The Orange Plaza Post Office was built in 1935 as a New Deal project, funded by the federal Public Works Administration.

J 108-126 S. GLASSELL ST.
 The Ehlen & Grote Commercial Block was constructed in 1908. Designed by architect Cornelius B. Bradshaw, the building included several businesses, most notably the Ehlen & Grote Department Store.

K ALPHA BETA MARKET
 Constructed in 1949, the Alpha Beta Market was a "modern" addition to the Plaza, responding to the city's growing population after World War II.

L SUNKIST BUILDING—195 S. Glassell St.
 The Orange County Fruit Exchange Building, also known as the Sunkist Building, was constructed in 1922. The building served as a headquarters for local citrus industry until the late 20th century.

M ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN CHURCH—185 S. Center St.
 With its prominent pair of Gothic Revival brick towers, St. John's Lutheran Church was built in 1914. It is separately listed in the National Register of Historic Places.

N ORANGE CIVIC CENTER—300 E. Chapman Ave.
 Dedicated in 1963, this mid-century gem reflects Modern design principles and the changing nature of Orange County post-World War II. The Civic Center was designed with graceful arches and covered breezeways.

Old Towne Orange Walking Tour

G VINELAND HOTEL—234 W. Chapman Ave.
 The Vineland Hotel was built in 1885 as a single-story Victorian style cottage and a large was added to the rear of the house to create the hotel. The building is one of the oldest remaining hotels in Orange County.

I 6. SAVI BUILDING—154 N. Glassell St.
 The Santa Ana Valley Irrigation Co. Building was constructed in 1914. Being in the heart of downtown, the SAVI Building was always in the background for local celebrations and commercial filming in the Plaza.
